Rabbi Harold Kushner reports that a psychologist friend of his told him the most reliable indicator of how well students will do in high school is how often they eat dinner with their parents. “You mean, it’s that simple?” “Yes, and it’s that hard, as well!”

We’ve lost sight of the “Art of the Family Meal.” It used to be a time when loved ones gathered around a finely set table with the glow of candles burning, the spicy scent of entrees, and the sweetness of wine.

The genteel and relaxed atmosphere set a tone for a more refined conversation, not merely of the marketplace but of the lives of those gathered. Thoughts were shared and philosophies espoused. Interesting experiences became opportune lessons in life. All this, and a good meal.

If only we could turn back the clock to a time when life moved more slowly; when family gathering times were “set in stone”. This is precisely the reason for the High Holidays-to make “Tshuvah”, literally, “to return” back to the future!

It was a great sage (with a strange name) Ben Bag-Bag who said of Torah, “Turn (continued on next page) it this way and that way, right side up and upside down; you’ll find everything in it.” And he was right. Long ago, Judaism had the wisdom to legislate a “special” day that would begin in the evening with a gathering of family & friends to share a familial/communal meal. It would be framed with candlelight, celebrated with wine, and accompanied with thoughtful talk, and joyful song. And, this day would happen once every week. It would be known as Shabbat.

We can turn the clock back by re-discovering God’s divine presence within those we love seated around our Shabbat table every Friday evening. “A loaf of bread, a jug of wine, and Thou!” May the New Year bring new re-discoveries of the past in our eternal effort to illuminate the future.

Request from Rabbi Siegel and Cantor Beth

Please keep us informed of significant events in your family life. It is our desire to be of help and service to you in times of special need. It is especially important that we know of those in the hospital, and assisted living or nursing homes, so that we can visit and they may be included in a prayer for recovery at Shabbat Services.

Looking to get involved?

Contact the Kol Ami office at 813-962-6338 or email Mitchell Weiss at execdirector@kolami.org
Please join us for our next Howard Kanter Kiddush Fund Luncheon on Saturday, September 16, 2017. These complimentary luncheons will be catered by Edibles by Ethel and will also be open to non-members in the greater Jewish Community.

Although members are not required to RSVP to attend, we do ask that any non-members who plan to attend contact the Kol Ami office at (813) 962-6338 to make reservations so we can prepare appropriately.

The Kiddush Fund, created by Kol Ami member, Howard Kanter (z”l), is now providing one Kiddush Luncheon per month on a Shabbat that does not have a Kiddush Luncheon sponsored by members or another committee of the synagogue.

Your extra donations (in addition to your usual contributions to Kol Ami) will help insure this effort for years to come. Donors will be recognized in the Weekly Watch and Shabbat Shalom the week of the sponsored luncheon.

We hope to see you on September 16. Also, please be sure to mingle and introduce yourself to someone you don’t know at these wonderful opportunities to make new friends and enjoy fellowship with your Kol Ami family.
Sukkot is the holiday that immediately precedes the rainy season in Israel. Though technically recited on Sh’mini Atzeret, it is the Holiday during which we now recite the prayer for rain, Geshem. The Geshem prayer asks God for rain to provide for a healthy growing season. Water, especially in the desert, is the difference between life and death. It is no accident that in Bereishit or Genesis, water was created before land, and before any living creature. Herd animals, born throughout the summer months, by the time of Sukkoth are old enough to graze on their own. To grow and, in time reproduce, they must have water. Such is the full circle of life – for all living things.

So, it stands to reason in the logic of the Torah, that Sukkoth, the Holiday in which we pray for rain, was also the bloodiest. Sukkoth reminds us that while we may have some measure of control of “blood” in the sense of providing for our food and well-being, we still must pray for the rain upon which life depends. The loss of either brings destruction; an excess of either does the same. Life is the perpetual struggle for balance. It depends, perhaps in equal measure, upon our own efforts and praying for the grace and providence of God. May all of us enjoy a bright and balanced year ahead.

L’shalom,
Cantor Beth Schlossberg

TJFS will never turn away an individual or family in need.
Since being honored with the privilege to serve Congregation Kol Ami as President, I have frequently been asked about two words in my e-mail signature line – “Sulam 50.” The word “Sulam” is Hebrew for “ladder” – referencing the ladder in Jacob’s dream during which he struggled with the Angels and earned the name “Israel.” “Sulam 50” indicates that I attended United Synagogues of Conservative Judaism’s (USCJ) “Sulam Leadership for Presidents” seminar – the 50th class. “Sulam Leadership for Presidents” is a weekend-long seminar during which incoming and newly installed presidents learn from USCJ experts and each other about the trials, tribulations, successes and challenges faced by synagogue presidents.

We covered many topics at “Sulam Leadership For Presidents” – developing a shared vision, peer coaching, membership engagement, leadership styles, conducting effective board meetings, achieving financial sustainability, developing healthy lay-staff partnerships, and nurturing change. While these are topics one might expect to cover in any leadership seminar, each focused on the unique nature of today’s synagogue.

I learned several lessons that I have tried to bring home to Congregation Kol Ami. Perhaps the greatest is that we are doing many things well! I developed a renewed commitment to Board transparency. I learned techniques to improve the way we run our Board meetings. I gained a deeper understanding of the need to spend time in each of these meetings discussing and learning about what it means to lead and setting clear expectations to define “success.” I learned more about my leadership skills and how to tap into the leadership styles of our Board members. I gained inspiration from Pirke Avot and Torah that can be brought to bear in leadership development and guiding the ship that we call “Congregation Kol Ami.”

USCJ has developed “Sulam Leadership” programming to meet the development needs of a variety of groups in today’s synagogues to help ensure our success for future generations. Congregation Kol Ami has brought two of these programs to our synagogue – Sulam Leadership for Current Leaders and for Strategic Planners.

I am proud to say that Congregation Kol Ami makes this type of leadership development a priority and that we reap the benefits of our membership in USCJ. It is this investment that continues to make Kol Ami the place to be!

Further, USCJ hosts an annual conference – this December in Atlanta, GA – during which attendees can learn about the successes of Congregations throughout the United States and ways to bring these lessons back to our Kehillah. I am hopeful that we will be well represented at this event.

As we prepare for a month of introspection in preparation for Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, I am confident that I will be able to draw on this inspirational opportunity to continue the important work that lies before us.

I hope that the New Year brings each of us only health, happiness and prosperity. May we all be inscribed in The Book of Life! L’shanah tovah u’metzukah!

The future is here, we are it,

Naomi Rappaport
September 9, 2017 / 18 Elul 5777
Currently an 8th grade student at Hillel Academy, Naomi Rappaport will become a bat mitzvah on September 9, Parashat Ki Tavo. At Hillel, Naomi is a serious student and focuses on getting good grades. So far in her young life, the accomplishment she feels most proud of is earning her high grades in school. Naomi describes herself as a kind, helpful, spirited person, who truly values trust and friendship. Though one talent she wishes she had is being able to sing, Naomi expresses herself plenty through her athleticism and is very active in a broad array of sports, especially volleyball. During the summer, Naomi enjoys attending Camp Ramah Darom. Many of her Camp Ramah friends will be coming to Tampa to help her celebrate, along with all her Tampa friends, her Saba from Israel, her Savta from Scottsdale, AZ, and her grandparents, uncles and cousins from St. Petersburg, Nashville, TN, New York and Raleigh, NC. Naomi would ultimately like to become a veterinarian. She has been busy volunteering at, and donating to, local animal shelters for her mitzvah project. She loves animals but nobody would ever guess that she also really likes reptiles!

The Academy at Kol Ami

Eighth & Ninth Grades

Eleventh & Twelfth Grades

The 8th and 9th grades will be instructed by Jennifer Halls. We will engage the students through discussions that will bring Pirkei Avot, the ethics of our Fathers, and Torah to the forefront of their lives.

The 11th and 12th grades will be instructed by Rabbi Siegel. Brunch with the Rabbi will based on Jewish middot, utilizing Jewish texts, short films, interesting narratives, and classroom discussion and include a light brunch. High school can be filled with confusing and difficult events and even more difficult decisions. Our Academy program will help to bring Jewish values and perspectives to light which will help to guide them through these times. We will also include some young adult Jewish book studies and writing from a Jewish perspective. It is going to be a life changing year!

Confirmation (Tenth Grade)

The Kol Ami Confirmation program is designed to help our students gain new perspectives of themselves and others. This is the age at which teens are seeking individuality and starting to make personal choices about essential issues. Through a variety of approaches, our teens have an opportunity to grow as Jews and to view Judaism as a continuous resource to them. Topics addressed are those which are of current concern to the students and which will become more relevant as they begin their college careers. Some topics might be: Substance Abuse and Self-Esteem, Jewish Life on Campus, Israel and Me, Social Justice and To Be a Jew in the World.

This class will meet on Sunday mornings, twice each month, 10:00 -11:00 a.m., on the dates listed below. It is important to note that Confirmation marks the culmination of years of study. Students who wish to be Confirmed must complete the eighth and ninth grade classes of The Academy.

Youth Groups

By Rachel Degani, Youth Director

Kol Ami’s youth department is excited to kick off the new year with brand new youth director, Rachel Degani and youth advisor, Abby Salem. Kol Ami’s open house was quite a success on the youth front, getting the children acquainted with the youth groups by giving away toys, stickers, event discounts and gift cards.

USY was very excited to kick off the year with a Glow stick Pool Party at Hannah’s house on 8/26/17, followed by a board bonding to set the tone for an amazing year.

Kadima jumpstarted their year with an Ice Cream Party on 8/27/17, playing games and having fun with discussions of calendar ideas and a board.

Boneem will be starting the year off right with a Super Sloppy Party on 9/17/17 at Rodeph Sholom and Chaverim with a Craft and Game gathering on 9/24/17.

USY is also working hard to plan a meaningful and educational program for High Holy Days. With values of leadership, fellowship, Jewish pride, and self-expression, we are excited to see what this year brings!

Kol Ami’s KAMEL Program

Sponsored by Ma’asim Tovim (Good Deeds) Committee, the Kol Ami Medical Equipment Loan (KAMEL) Program pairs up congregants who are willing to loan their currently unused medical equipment to other congregants who are in need of such equipment on either a short or long-term basis.

If you have extra equipment (e.g., canes, walkers, wheelchairs, shower chairs, grab bars, etc.) you are willing to lend, or if you would like to borrow equipment, please contact Ma’asim Tovim Chair, Sue Dvorchik at susiedv1@gmail.com or contact the Kol Ami office at (813) 962-6338.

We will try to make the “shidduch” (match)!
